

Jeff Andrew Simpson

The JAS Quintet features some of the finest jazz musicians the city of Atlanta has to offer. They play a wonderful mix of jazz tunes from the straight-ahead bag that will appeal to the die hard jazz fan as well as to the new listener of this great American art form. A set will feature standards in the Swing, Latin, and Contemporary styles and will be sprinkled with Simpson originals from In a Midnight Moon, his CD which has received critical acclaim and airplay across the country.

The group consists of seasoned veterans of the jazz scene here in Atlanta and who have also performed with many players on the national stage. The leader Jeff Andrew Simpson has performed and recorded with some of the best in Jazz and is beginning to make a name for himself with his broad tradition filled sound on tenor and his haunting nuance on the flute. He also plays the alto and soprano saxophones and is responsible for the tasty and choice set lists. Marcus Printup, heralded trumpeter of the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra plays with a passion that is contagious. Kevin Bales on piano is currently performing with Jazz vocalist Allan Harris and is making a huge mark in the jazz world with his brilliant technique and style. Ramon Pooser is a force on the upright bass and is known for his unique approach to his solos. Keith Runfola is one of the most sought after drummers in Atlanta and continues to carve his niche among the best. The group can be enhanced with jazz percussionist Tony Waters, who has recorded with jazz greats Joe Henderson and Cedar Walton to name just a few.

The JAS Quintet is available for performance.
