

Jeff Andrew Simpson

The Christmas JAS Trio features some of the finest musicians the city of Atlanta has to offer. They play a wonderful mix of entertaining Christmas and Holiday Jazz music that will appeal to the jazz fan as well as to the new listener of this great American art form. A set will feature classic Christmas standards in the swing, Latin, and contemporary styles, as well as some others you might not often hear. Featured music include favorites from the timeless renditions of Frank Sinatra, Tony Bennett and Harry Connick Jr.

The group consists of seasoned veterans of the jazz scene here in Atlanta and who have also performed with many players on the national stage. The leader Jeff Andrew Simpson has performed and recorded with some of the best in Jazz and is making a name for himself with his broad tradition filled sound on tenor and his haunting nuance on the flute. He also plays the alto and soprano saxophones, sings and is responsible for the tasty and choice set lists. Mike Ewbank plays terrific on the piano and is known for his New Orleans approach in his solos. Michael Hinton is one of the most sought after drummers in Atlanta and continues to carve his niche among the best.

Whatever the occasion may be, The Christmas JAS Trio will be sure to delight and entertain with musical taste and sensitivity to the atmosphere and the clientele.

The Jeff Andrew Simpson Trio is available for performance.
